INDEX

Adams, Henry C., 55
  cited, 41, 195
Adams, Thomas S., cited, 86
  quoted, 157
Alcohol tax, as source of revenue for states, 129
Alvord, Ellsworth C., Business and National Defense Taxes, 143–147
Anderson, F. F., cited, 195
Armament Expenditures in Principal Countries, Paul Studenski, 29–37
  in Canada, 116–117
  in France, 34
  in Germany, 32–33, 36
    preceding the present war, 118
  in Great Britain, 33–34, 36, 111–116
  in Italy, 35, 120–121
  in Japan, 34–35, 36, 121
  in Russia, 34, 36
  social-economic consequences of, 10–12, 213 See also National defense—financing of Army and Navy Departments budget procedure for, less rigid, 42 estimates for 1941, 39
Arnold, Thurman, cited, 150
Asahi, Isoshi, cited, 30

Benson, John, cited, 90
Bernonville, Dugé de, cited, 30
Black, Duncan, cited, 201, 202
Blakey, Gladys C., cited, 59, 64
Blakey, Roy G., The Personal Income Tax and Defense, 59–67
  cited, 59, 64
Bliven, Bruce, cited, 33
Bloch, Henri S., 184
Blough, Roy, Problems of Federal Tax Administration, 157–165
Briand, Aristide, 29
Brown, F. H., 117
Brown, Harry G., cited, 195 Budgets, governmental
  in Canada, 116
  in Great Britain, 112
  in Japan, 121
  in United States
    improvement of machinery of, 40 modification of procedure for defense work, 41–42
Buehler, Alfred G., The Excess Profits Tax, 86–93
Bullock, Charles J., quoted, 14 Bureau of the Budget
  as central control agency, 172 preparation of estimates by, 39–40
Burkhead, Jesse V., 106
Burton, Robert, cited, 206
Business and National Defense Taxes, Ellsworth C. Alvord, 143–147 Business taxes
  as source of revenue for states, 129 justified by benefit principle, 57 priority of states in, 48
  See also Excess profits tax; Normal-profits tax

Caesar, Julius, 133
Carnegie, Andrew, 95
Case Against Taxation of Governmental Securities, The, Carl H. Chatters, 73–77
Case for Taxation of Governmental Securities, The, Kossuth M. Williamson, 68–72
Chamberlain, Neville, 114
Chapman, John M., cited, 179
Chase, Salmon P., 94
Chatters, Carl H., The Case Against Taxation of Governmental Securities, 73–77
  cited, 74
Churchill, Winston, 112
Civilian Conservation Corps, expenditures for, during the emergency, 20
Clark, Colin, cited, 30, 33, 34
Clark, John M., 12
  cited, 10
Cline, Denzel C., Commodity Taxes, 100–105
Cole, G. D. H., cited, 33
Colm, Gerhard, The Cost of Arming America, 8–13
  cited, 38, 69, 70
Commodity Taxes, Denzel C. Cline, 100–105 advantages of, 103–104
  as repressing consumption, 102–103 as reaching low-income group, 104–105 borne largely by consumers, 101 economic effects of, 100–101 definition of, 100
  less objectionable than income tax, 105 volitional element in, 102
  See also Sales tax
Comstock, Alzada, Financing National Defense in Great Britain and Canada, 111–117
  cited, 97
Consumption taxes
  as restricting nonessentials, 137
  in first World War, 137 purposes of, 137
  types of articles to be included in, 137
  See also Sales tax
Cost of Arming America, The, Gerhard Colm, 8–13
Crump, Norman, cited, 33

Dalton, Hugh, cited, 195, 196
Davis, James J., 168
Davisson, Malcolm M., and Ewald T. Grether, Tax Policy and Price Fixing as Economic Controls for Defense Mobilization, 148–156

DEATH AND GIFT TAXES, Mark C. Mills, 94–99 Death taxes criticism of, as an emergency tax, 97 Federal
history of, 94–95
revenue possibilities of, 94, 97, 98
in France, 97
in Great Britain, 96
shared by Federal and state governments, 47, 96, 97–98, 129
state
as source of revenue, 129
history of, 96
number of states where used, 96 uniformity of, 97
See also Gift taxes
Debt, public
in France, 175
in Germany, 118, 119
in Great Britain, 115, 175
in Italy, 121, 175
in Japan, 122, 175
in previous wars, 186–188
in Russia, 123
in United States
burden of, 177–180
on future generations, 181–182, 199 changed composition of, 175–176, 180–181 compared with first World War, 126 increase of interest on, 19 prospective deficits or surplus, 191–192 raising of limit of, 59 retirement of, 176–177, 193 special problems in, 173–174 repayment of, 205–206 service
economic costs of, 201–203 social costs of, 203–204 subjective costs of, 200–201 state, compared with Federal, 130, 175–176
See also Armament expenditures; Government borrowing Dickinson, Frank S., cited, 12
DRAWING ON WAGES AND SMALL INCOMES TO FINANCE DEFENSE, Harold M. Groves, 106–110
Durand, Edward Dana, cited, 195
Durham, Walter A., cited, 65

Eccles, Marriner S., 135
cited, 178, 181
Education, Federal expenditures for, during the emergency, 19–20
See also State and local expenditures—for public schools
Einzig, Paul, 111
Ensley, Grover W., cited, 65
Espinosa, A. degli, cited, 30 EXCESS PROFITS TAX, THE, Alfred G. Buehler, 86–93
in Canada, 116
in Great Britain
criticisms of, 114–115
revenue possibilities of, 92
in Italy, 120
in Japan, 121
in United States
administrative problems, 86, 163–165
as emergency source of revenue, 57, 63, 93 as preventing rise of war millionaires, 86, 94 consolidated returns, 165 features of 1940 law, 86–87 amortization provision, 87–88 methods of determining liability, 88 average-earnings basis, 91–92, 162 valuation of investments, 88–90, 162 functions of, 146
justification for, 57
receipts from, in 1940, 93
revenue possibilities of, 92–93
role of, in peacetime, 93 Expenditure control
by Congress, 146
directional, 172
principles governing, 39–41 restrictive, 172
See also Bureau of the Budget; General Accounting Office

FAIRCHILD, FRED ROGERS, A General Appraisal of the Federal Tax System, 44–50
FEDERAL DEBT PROBLEMS ARISING FROM THE PRESENT EMERGENCY, Simeon E. Leland, 184–198
FEDERAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM AND NATIONAL DEFENSE, THE, Daniel T. Selko, 166–174 FEDERAL NONARMAMENT EXPENDITURES DURING THE EMERGENCY PERIOD, M. Slade Kendrick, 14–21 increase of during first World War, 15–18 prior to present emergency, 15 in wartime, 14
outlook for, 18–20
since 1931, 16, 190–191
See also Civilian Conservation Corps; Education; Government employees' retirement fund; Public works expenditures; Social security—expenditures for, during the emergency Federal tax commission, need for, 51, 85
FINANCING NATIONAL DEFENSE IN GREAT BRITAIN AND CANADA, Alzada Comstock, 111–117 FINANCING NATIONAL DEFENSE IN RUSSIA AND THE AXIS POWERS, Mabel Newcomer, 118–125

Financial planning conduct of financial operations, 169 estimates of cash requirements, 170–171 fund-raising agencies, 169–170 improvement in accounting control, 173 in budgetary management, 172–173 in routine procedures, 171 legislative procedure, 167–168 proposal for joint committee on appropriations, 168 functions of, 168–169
role of President in, 168, 172 Fiscal policies
comparison of Federal and state, 131 integration with military-economic objectives, 51 study needed of Federal-state-local, 77
See also Financial planning
Fishman, Leo, 29
Fisk, Harvey E., cited, 185
Frank, Jerome, 136

Garner, Robert L., cited, 193
Gayer, A. D., cited, 178, 181
General Accounting Office, as government control agency, 172
GENERAL APPRAISAL OF THE FEDERAL TAX SYSTEM, A, Fred Rogers Fairchild, 44–50
George, Walter F., 84
Gibson, J. D., 117
Gift taxes
Federal
as emergency source of revenue, 94
history of, 95
integration with estate tax, 98 revenue possibilities of, 94, 95, 98
state
as source of revenue, 129
number of states where used, 96
See also Death taxes
Gilbert, Richard V., cited, 189
Gladstone, William E., quoted, 199
Goebbels, Paul Joseph, 32, 33 Government borrowing classes of, 170, 193–195
in first World War, 118, 185
reliance upon, in defense program, 138–139, 209, 210, 214 rules governing, 208–209
See also Debt, public Government contracts
awarding of, 42–43
protection against exploitation in, 42
Government employees' retirement fund, expenditures for, during the emergency, 20 Governmental securities ownership of, 73–74
taxation of constitutionality of, 73 effects of economic, 70
fiscal, 70–72
on interest costs, 74–75 on progressive income tax, 68–70 on refunding plans, 75 political aspects of, 76–77 reciprocal benefits of, 76 relation to national defense, 72 transfers of burdens involved in, 75–76
Green, William R., cited, 98
GRETHER, EWALD T., AND MALCOLM M. DAVISSON, Tax Policy and Price Fixing as Economic Controls for Defense Mobilization, 148–156
Grether, Ewald T., cited, 154
GROVES, HAROLD M., Drawing on Wages and Small Incomes to Finance Defense, 106–110
cited, 9, 152
Guillebaud, C. W., cited, 33

Haig, R. M., cited, 68
Hall, J. K., cited, 69
Hardy, Charles O., cited, 68, 69, 70, 71, 149, 153, 188
Harris, Joseph P., cited, 42
Harris, Seymour E., quoted, 116
Harrison, Pat (Byron Patton), 59
Hart, Albert G., cited, 194
Hawley, Joseph R., 139
HEER, CLARENCE, State and Local Expenditures During the Emergency Period, 22–28
cited, 15
Hicks, U. K., cited, 201, 202, 204
Hinrichs, A. F., cited, 71
Hitler, Adolf, 31, 32, 38, 47, 62, 118, 141
Hollander, Jacob H., cited, 196
Hotelling, H., cited, 152
Hubbard, L. E., cited, 122

Income tax
Federal
broadening of base of, 158 collection at the source, 160 compared with corporation taxation, 64–65 co-ordination between state and, 46–47 cost of handling returns, 159 exemptions, 49, 158–159 extension to lower brackets, 110 information at the source, 160–161 information returns from employers, 159 limitations on, 46
merits of, 64
methods of increasing revenue from, 65 number of returns filed, 159 receipts from 49, 59–61
reliance on, in present emergency, 63, 136 supremacy of, 46, 128

synonymous with "ability to pay," 57, 63–64
in Canada
collection at the source, 161–162
increase in rate of, 116
in Germany, 119
in Great Britain
collection at the source, 114, 161
increase in rate of, 113, 114
in Italy, 120
state
as causing migration of wealth, 128
as source of revenue, 128
uniformity in, 47
Inflation
and deferred payments, 115 and price control, 111 controlled by excess profits tax, 146 paper money as leading to, 195
See also Keynes Plan; Paper money Inheritance tax, see Death taxes

Joseph, M. F. W., cited, 152, 201

Kähler, Alfred, cited, 206
Kellogg, Frank B., 29
KENDRICK, M. SLADE, Federal Nonarmament Expenditures During the Emergency Period, 14–21
Keynes, John Maynard, 107, 108, 111, 114, 152
cited, 106, 115, 151
quoted, 109
Keynes Plan
applicability in United States, 109 alternatives to consumption goods rationing, 107
inflation, 107
retail sales and wage taxes, 107 explanation of, 106–107 history of, in England, 107–108
KIMMEL, LEWIS H., The Normal-Profits Tax, 78–85
cited, 180
Knight, Bruce, cited, 12
Kuczynski, Jürgen, cited, 33

Lange, Oskar, cited, 149
Lehmann, Fritz, cited, 10, 33, 69, 70
LELAND, SIMEON E., Federal Debt Problems Arising from the Present Emergency, 184–198
cited, 182
LOANS VERSUS TAXES IN DEFENSE FINANCING, Harley L. Lutz, 207–215
LONG, HENRY F., State and Local Government Taxes in the Crisis, 126–132 LUTZ, HARLEY L., Loans Versus Taxes in Defense Financing, 207–215
cited, 69, 70, 71, 74
quoted, 81
Luxuries
curtailment of imports of, in Canada, 116 distinction between necessities and, 101–102 taxation of approval of, 57
in Canada, 116
objection to, 57–58

McAdoo, William G., quoted, 160
Magee, James D., cited, 69, 70
Magill, Roswell, cited, 93, 175
Malloch, C. A. (translator), 38
Manufacturers' sales tax, revenue possibilities of, 100
Martin, Robert F., cited, 10
Mason, D. M., 111
Meliado, L., cited, 30
MILLS, MARK C., Death and Gift Taxes, 94–99
Mints, L. W., 184
Morgenthau, Henry, Jr., 59, 72, 77, 180, 214
cited, 93
Motor vehicle taxes, as source of revenue, 128–129
Murphy, H. C., cited, 68, 70

National defense
a government function, 38
and democracy, 143
financing of
compared with first World War, 124–125
comparisons between countries, 123–124
in Canada, 116–117
in Germany, 119–120
in Great Britain, 111–116
in Italy, 120–121
in Japan, 121–122
in Russia, 122–123
in United States
compared with first World War, 8–9 compared with Germany, 8, 9, 38 estimate as to cost of, 185, 191, 192 financed through borrowing, 26, 52, 138, 139, 185–186, 207–215 pay-as-you-go policy, 213–214 policies to be followed, 145 problems involved, 144–145 requirements of, 143–144
See also Armament expenditures; Government borrowing; Taxation National Defense Advisory Commission, importance of, 42 National income
in Germany
expansion of, 118–119
in United States
decline of, 1929–32, 23 effect of, on state and local budgets, 23 increase of, during emergency period, 26, 50 Nelson, Roger S., 184

NEWCOMER, MABEL, Financing National Defense in Russia and the Axis Powers, 118–125
cited, 69, 175, 176
NORMAL-PROFITS TAX, THE, Lewis H. Kimmel, 78–85 amortization provision of, 83 and the Federal income tax structure, 83–84 as species of business tax, 80, 81 attaining equity among corporations, 81–82 Federal-state use of profits base, 84–85 filing of consolidated returns, 82
justification for, 80–81
preferential rates, 82–83 rate structure for, 78–79
receipts from, 1930–40, 79, 84 relation to tax system, 84
revenue possibilities of, 84 variability in yield of, 79–80

Oakes, E. E., cited, 69
Office of Production Management, establishment of, 171
OUR MOUNTING GOVERNMENTAL DEBT, William Withers, 175–183

Paper money, use of, 195–197
See also Inflation
Perkins, Frances, 189
PERSONAL INCOME TAX AND DEFENSE, THE, Roy G. Blakey, 59–67
Pigou, A. C., cited, 148, 184, 196, 201
Plato, 141
Plehn, C. C., cited, 80
Plumptre, A. F. W., 117
PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S BUDGET MESSAGE TO CONGRESS, 1–7 Price fixing government
and full use of resources, 150–151
and partial use of resources, 149–150 in postemergency period, 154–155
when to be used, 149, 153 private inherent in our economy, 145 selective, 153
Prices
armament program and, 134 effect of paper money on, 196 postemergency effects of, 139
PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNMENTAL SPENDING DURING THE PRESENT EMERGENCY, Tipton R. Snavely, 38–43
PRINCIPLES OF TAXATION AND THE PRESENT EMERGENCY, Lloyd P. Rice, 51–58
PROBLEMS OF FEDERAL TAX ADMINISTRATION, Roy Blough, 157–165 Property tax
as belonging to states and localities, 48, 127
as source of revenue, 126
to local governments, 127 to states, 126, 127
demand for reduction in, 128
in Massachusetts
average local tax rate, 127
Public works expenditures, curtailment of, 20, 191
See also State and local expenditures

Rabelais, François, 199
Rae, Priscilla, 111
Reimann, Gunther, cited, 30
REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS FOR 1940, 216–219 Revenue system
dual function of, 145
in defense emergency, 146
in peacetime, 145–146
RICE, LLOYD P., Principles of Taxation and the Present Emergency, 51–58
Rignano, Eugenio, 98
Roosevelt, Franklin D., 40, 41, 86, 176, 214
Roosevelt, Theodore, 95
Roper, Daniel C., 157
Rowe, W. H., cited, 71
Rowell, Newton W., 117
RUGGLES, CATHERINE G., Social and Economic Implications of the National Debt, 199–206

Sales tax adoption of, after 1932, 23 as distinguished from commodity taxes, 100 growth of, 48
revenue possibilities of, 129–130
See also Commodity taxes
Schiff, Mortimer L., 160
Schumpeter, Elizabeth Boody, cited, 35
Seligman, E. R. A., cited, 212
SELKO, DANIEL T., The Federal Financial System and National Defense, 166–174
cited, 41, 167
Shiomi, S., cited, 122
Shirras, G. Findlay, cited, 199
Shultz, William J., 71
cited, 69, 96, 97
Simmons, Furnifold, quoted, 80
Simon, John, 108, 112, 113, 114
Simons, Henry C., cited, 69
SIMPSON, HERBERT D., Social and Economic Implications of Taxation in the Defense Program, 133–142
Sirois, Joseph, 117
Smith, Adam, 38, 51
cited, 208
quoted, 213, 213–214
Smith, Harold D., cited, 8
Smoot, Reed, 139
SNAVELY, TIPTON R., Principles of Governmental Spending During the Present Emergency, 38–43
SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF TAXATION IN THE DEFENSE PROGRAM, Herbert D. Simpson, 133–142

SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC IMPLICATIONS OF THE NATIONAL DEBT, Catherine G. Ruggles, 199–206 Social security
  as agency for collection from wage earners, 109 as increasing state and local expenditures, 24 compared to Keynes Plan, 109 expenditures for, during the emergency, 19 Sonnenschein, Rosalie, 184
Speier, Hans, cited, 206
Sprague, O. M. W., cited, 195
Stamp, Josiah, cited, 96
STATE AND LOCAL EXPENDITURES DURING THE EMERGENCY PERIOD, Clarence Heer, 22–28 and Federal financial aid, 23, 24, 26 effects of reduction of, 27 for direct relief, 24, 25 for health, 22–23
  for hospitals and correctional institutions, 22 for police and fire protection, 22 for public indebtedness, 22 for public schools, 22, 23, 24 for public works, 22, 23, 24 for work relief, 24, 25, 26
    curtailment of, 26
STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT TAXES IN THE CRISIS, Henry F. Long, 126–132
Staudinger, Hans, cited, 10, 33
Stewart, Paul W., cited, 176, 178, 179, 180
Stolper, Gustav, cited, 33
Stone, William T., cited, 35, 118
STUDENSKI, PAUL, Armament Expenditures in Principal Countries, 29–37
  cited, 10, 176, 182

Tariff
  prerogative of Federal Government, 46 relation to defense program, 135, 138, 139 Tax policy
  and full use of resources, 150–151
  and partial use of resources, 149–150
  in postemergency period, 154–155 questions to be considered, 61–62
TAX POLICY AND PRICE FIXING AS ECONOMIC CONTROLS FOR DEFENSE MOBILIZATION, Ewald T. Grether and Malcolm M. Davisson, 148–156 Tax system administration of changes in, as result of defense program, 158
    compared with first World War, 157–158
  criticism of, 44
  evolution of, 44
  Federal-state co-ordination of, 45–48 necessary for defense, 49 fundamental purpose of, 51–52 need for overhauling of, 45 re-examination needed, 53 strengthening of, 110
Taxation
  and democracy, 131, 141
  and production, 134–136, 212–213 and standard of living, 140–141 as deterrent to business activity, 50 close to limit, 50
  equating defense expenditures and, 151–152 of war industries, 135
    in Great Britain, 135–136
  principles of administrative feasibility, 56 certainty of operation, 54–55 diversity, 56–57
    economy, 53
    fiscal adequacy, 51–52
    justice, 53–54
    political and social expediency, 55–56 reliance upon, in defense program, 138–139, 210, 211–212, 213 versus loans in defense financing, 207–215 Taxes
  Federal
    estimate of potential yield, 189–190
    increase of, 26, 50, 51, 52, 157, 158, 189 state and local effect of defense activities on, 130 effect of improved business on, 130 for fiscal year 1929–30, 22
    increase of, 26, 126
  See also Alcohol tax; Business taxes; Commodity taxes; Consumption taxes; Death taxes; Excess profits tax; Gift taxes; Income tax; Luxuries—taxation of; Manufacturers' sales tax; Motor vehicle taxes; Normal-profits tax; Property tax; Sales tax; Tobacco tax Tobacco tax, as source of revenue, 129
Treadway, Allen T., 168
Trull, Edna, cited, 176
Tucker, Rufus S., cited, 176, 178, 179, 180

Unemployment relief, expenditures for, during the emergency, 20

Walker, Mabel L., cited, 101
Wieser, F. von, cited, 38
Wilde, John C. de, cited, 33
WILLIAMSON, KOSSUTH M., The Case for Taxation of Governmental Securities, 68–72
Willis, H. Parker, cited, 179
WITHERS, WILLIAM, Our Mounting Governmental Debt, 175–183
  cited, 177, 205
Wood, Kingsley, 112
Woodrum, Clifton A., quoted, 41–42

Young, E. Hilton, quoted, 40